Dear Mrs. Meredith,

In this letter, I wish to express my feelings of respect and admiration for you, in your determination to lift your race to the level of the white people, and to make them see and understand that you are human, and God made you just as he made every other race in the world. I admire your courage to fight for your rights, and I am with you every step of the way. I am a white person, but I admire the Negro race very much, and I feel that their sorrow is my sorrow, their joy my joy, and their fight my fight.

I wish you the best of luck in your battle, even though it is one of anguish for you. Remember I am with you to the end and I share your feelings.
May God Bless and keep you.

I sincerely yours,
Norma Gabriel
